Two Travellers: Betty and Doris

Betty the Traveller saves the sanity of her owners Pete and Marilyn by going on an alcohol run in the lockdown. Betty's advice: "Always drink in moderation and never drive me under the influence. Tea and coffee always best. Keep your distance and stay safe all you lovely members."

Love, Pete and Marilyn xx

A friend in my orchestra gave me some details of her woody "Doris" that she and her husband were going to restore, but somehow it never happened. It needed quite a lot of work. They looked to sell it instead, so she gave me the details, for our club. Recently, she told me that she had sold it to someone who does Classics up which are then used in period television programmes. I thought it was a lovely story, and said to her that I'd look out for it on TV! I've always enjoyed the cars on "Call the Midwife" and "Heartbeat". I think her husband has his eye on another Classic!
